Election Officials Needed for General Election

September 12, 2022, Monroe, NC – Election officials are needed for the November 8 general election.

On November 8, polls will be open from 6:30 a.m. – 7:30 p.m. Workers will be required to assist with set-up of polling precincts on November 7 and work from 5:30 a.m. until approximately 8:30 p.m. or later on Election Day. Primary election workers are paid a flat rate for attending training, setting up their precinct and working on November 8.

Election officials must be Union County residents and a Union County registered voter (or become registered if eligible). Election officials cannot be a candidate or relative of a candidate on the ballot and must not be an elected government official, hold office with a political party or be a treasurer for a candidate or political party.

Election official training is scheduled for Monday, October 3 – Friday, October 7 at Monroe Fire Department Station #4. Election officials are required to participate in one, four-hour training session.
